Name:_____

1. The Internet Engineering Task Force (IETF) defines the protocols and standards for how the Internet works. The members of the IETF are:
   a. An International coalition of government agencies who oversee the Internet in their countries.
   b. The worldwide leaders of the Tier 1 Internet service providers.
   c. A loosely organized collection of citizens and engineers who communicate mostly by email.
   d. Political leaders and heads of state.
   e. There are no members. IETF is an "organization" in name only.

2. Choose the two best answers to complete the sentence: If I understand how the Internet works, then I will be able to:
   a. make informed choices to support or oppose decisions my government makes about access to the Internet.
   b. connect the latest devices to the Internet.
   c. make informed choices about my privacy on the Internet.
   d. get the best price for my cell phone plan.
   e. speed up my downloads of movies I purchase.

3. Explain one challenge raised by Vint Cerf in "The Internet is for Everyone" and give one example of it that you know about.

4. Explain the following statement in your own words, "The Internet is a distributed global system that works on shared and open protocols".

5. In terms of the Internet, why is Ashburn, VA so important?

6. Who owns the Internet?

7. Who controls access to the Internet?

8. What is Net Neutrality?